

Silmix

Water proofing admixture for plaster and screed

Key Performance Properties

Silmix is water based emulsion of alkoxy silane/ Siloxane Used for water resistance treatment of plaster and screed.

- It can be used as water repellent/resistance concrete admixture of external applications.
- Prevents absorption of dissolve salts & soluble from surroundings environments
- Prevents concrete corrosion of embedded steel

Application

Property	Typical Value
Specific Gravity	0.98
pH	7-9

Availability

Recommendation to use Silmix in all plasters, around Kitchen, bathrooms & roof, also used in screed. For long term water proofing. Supplied in ready to use form. If applied externally multiple coats should be done.

Drying Time

Silmix cures completely in 03 days.

Packaging

Silmix is available in 1-30 liter Drums

Handling and Safety

Materials Safety Data Sheets are available upon request from Ressichem Private Limited.

Storage Stability

Silmix should be stored at temperatures +5°C to +35°C.
The shelf life of Silmix is 12 month if stored in closed containers.